51. Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

Bumaali is a highly respected man in Naama Village. Whenever there is a telephone promotion in the neighbouring towns, he is the first person to arrive. He has coined a slogan “Get connected” in the whole village. Many people have nicknamed him “Get connected”. While at home, he uses a landline which his son installed in his house. Whenever he goes to the nearby town of Myanzi, he does not carry this telephone. He instead carries his mobile phone.

One day, as Bumaali was washing, his mobile phone dropped into a basin of water. He screamed frightenedly thinking it had got spoilt, only to discover that it was the simcard that had got spoilt. He then made up his mind to go to the usual promotions where he could purchase a new simcard at a cheaper price. Luckily, the promotion was to be held in a couple of days.

He bought the new simcard at three thousand five hundred shillings only. He was very happy because he was going to "Get connected" again. Having bought the simcard, he bought a top-up card of two thousand shillings to inform his friends that he had got a new simcard. Unfortunately, he had lost all their contacts. He therefore called only those whose names he had written on a piece of paper in his pocket.

The Road
The collecting place for all vehicles
Where motorists display their intellect
Cruising in posh land cruisers and Hummers
While pedestrians suffer the dust showered on them

The Road
Decorated with zebra crossings,
To allow pedestrians cross with ease,
Decorated with traffic lights,
To control traffic at junctions

The Road
Where traffic officers show their authority,
Arresting reckless drivers and other bad road users,
Who fail to follow the Highway Code,
As a measure to reduce road accidents

The Road
The number one killer of innocent people
Perishing in fatal accidents here and there
Others trapped at black spots and junctions
