Read the passage below carefully and answer the questions about it correctly.

THE MOBILE PHONE

A mobile phone, cellular phone, cellphone, handphone or pocket phone, sometimes shortened to simply phone, is a portable telephone that can make and receive calls over a radio frequency link while the user is moving within a telephone service area. The radio frequency link establishes a connection to the switching systems of a mobile phone operator, which provides access to the public switched telephone network (PSTN). Modern mobile telephone services use a cellular network architecture and therefore, mobile telephones are called cellular phones or cell phones in North America.

In addition to telephony, digital mobile phones (2G) support a variety of other services, such as text messaging, MMS, email, internet access, short range wireless communications (infrared, Bluetooth), business applications, video games and digital photography.
Mobile phones offering only those capabilities are known; as feature phones; mobile phones which offer greatly advanced computing capabilities are referred to as smartphones.

The first handheld mobile phone was demonstrated by John F.Mitchell and Martin Cooper of Motorola in New York City in 1973, using a handset weighing 2 kg (4.4lbs). In 1979, Nippon Telegraph and Telephone (NTT) launched the World's first cellular network in Japan. In 1983, the Dyna TAC 8000X was the first commercially available handheld mobile phone.
From 1983 to 2014, World Wide mobile phone subscriptions grew to over seven billion; enough to provide one for every person on earth. In 2016, the top smart phone developers World Wide were Samsung, Apple and Huawei; smartphone sales represented 78 percent of total mobile phones. As of now, the top-selling brands are Samsung, Nokia and Alcatel.

EXAMS

See, you hear this word and shiver
While some of us get problems of the liver
Yup! Exams are what I'm talking about
The reason pupils start howling about
Oh exams! What do we do with you?

As it approaches, students be like
A reaction no one ever seen like
In our dreams like a monster sneaks up
Within our soul like Death creeps up
Oh exams! What do we do with you?

That one night before exam burden
Reminds me of the War of Verdun
Only if I had books borrowed or lent
All night were the eyes to suspend
Oh exams! What do we do with you?

That, to be murdered day arrived
Of peaceful sleep were we deprived
When the exam hall were we to enter
Shot a bullet shrapnel in the centre
Oh exams! What do we do with you ?

Dead were we when we turned the paper
Those questions turned us into vapor
Students like us had two or three attempted
Handed over those two sheets and left all exempted.
