51. Read the passage below carefully and answer the questions that follow in full sentences. Foolish Kayondo

Near Kayondo's home, there was a market where his family bought things they needed to use. The holidays were over. It was time to go back to school. Kayondo went to the market to buy soap, salt, books and pens. At the market, he saw some sweets and pancakes he forgot to buy the books and spent all the money on sweets and pancakes. On his way home, Kayondo ate all the pancakes and sweets. His stomach started hurting. He began to cry. When he reached home, his mother was not happy. "Where are the books and pens?" his mother asked. "I forgot to buy them," Kayondo replied. His mother did not have any more money to give him to buy books and pens. Kayondo went to school without books. His mother told him that next time he went to the market; he should make a list of things he is going to buy. Kayondo learnt to make a list before going to the market.
