	SECTION B
	Read the passage below carefully and then answer in full sentences, the
	At 9:30 a.m. on Monday, I moved to Kampala City. I went there to procure a smart phone and a TV. I wanted to give the phone to my mother on her forty – second birthday that was to be celebrated the following day.
	With my money in the school bag that I carried on my back, I continued moving until I felt exhausted and I boarded a taxi which had only two people in it, the driver and the conductress. I took the front seat and I comfortably enjoyed the music that was being played.
	Barely a hundred meters had been driven. I lost my consciousness and by the time I woke up, I had been dumped in front of Makerere University main gate. My bag and the money had been taken. Thank God I had been neither defiled nor physically hurt in any way.
i	As I always say 'Never give up!', I comforted myself and walked back home, I went to my sleeping room and I broke my saving box. When I counted the money I had saved, I had accumulated two million shillings.
	I took one million shillings and I went to Kampala city again. This time, I boarded a motorcycle (bodaboda) direct. I bought all that I wanted and I went back home using the same means.
