However, resting does not simply mean being idle or not working at all.
They may also include visiting relatives and friends during this period.
Since this would be very difficult to fulfil when we are at school.
It only means doing activities that help your body and mind to relax.
That is why we should always have holidays at the end of every term.
Why do you think so?
Most pupils believe that this period is indeed good for us.
Such activities include camping, swimming and touring important places.
I think so because holidays enable us to rest.
Every school child needs a holiday.
