51. Read the following story and then answer the questions in full sentences.

Briana Visits Ruth

Briana's home was to Ruth's. They were friends and often paid each other a visit. When it was Brian's turn to visit Ruth, she woke up early in the morning, quickly did her house work and left.

When she got there, she found Ruth standing behind the house. Ruth welcomed Briana warmly and invited her into the house. Briana sat down while Ruth went into the kitchen to prepare tea for her friend.

When Briana was left alone in the sitting room, she started admiring what she saw. There was a television set and above it was a picture of a bird. There was also a beautiful table and on it were flowers. A cat was lying under the table.

There was a book case next to a sofa set and on top of the book case was a photograph. A lamp hung behind an armchair. What a nice arrangement this is! Briana wondered silently.

As she sat opposite the television set watching cartoons, she thought of how to make their sitting room look like Ruth's, but just then her friend Ruth came back carrying a pot of tea.

Dear Uncle Ben,

I am so glad to write this letter to you. How is Masaka? I would like to thank you for paying my school fees in time. When daddy passed on, I was so worried that I would not go to school any longer but now I feel very happy because of your support.

Uncle, life at school was very good. Our school has a very good environment for learning.

At the beginning of the term, I was unhappy because I was sick and could dodge class work. I am very happy because I was promoted to Primary Four.

Uncle I thank you for the support. May you do the same in Primary Five. Send my greetings to all our relatives in Masaka.

Your loving sister,

Shivon.
