Lesson 23; notes and activity.

EFFECTS OF COLONIAL RULE IN AFRICA.

a) Economic effects

- ✓ They introduced new crops.
- ✓ They built processing industries.
- ✓ They constructed roads to ease transport.
- ✓ Improved communication network that widened market for goods.
- ✓ Legitimate trade was introduced.

b) Social effects

- ✓ They stopped slave trade.
- ✓ They promoted spread of Christianity.
- ✓ They introduced new foreign languages.
- ✓ They promoted formal education.
- ✓ They built health service centers.
- ✓ They linked Africa to outside world.

c) Political effects

- √ They promoted democracy
- ✓ They introduced new methods of administration
- ✓ They fixed boundaries.

Negative contributions

- ✓ High taxation was introduced.
- ✓ There was forced labour with little or no pay.
- ✓ Africa's resources were exploited.
- ✓ There was loss of fertile land by the Africans.
- ✓ Africans lost political independence.

- ✓ African kings and chiefs lost political fame, prestige, control and trust.
- ✓ Boundaries led to separation of tribes.
- ✓ Introduced foreign laws.
- ✓ There was loss of lives through wars.
- ✓ Colonization led to racial segregation.

Reasons why colonialists never built manufacturing industries in Africa.

- > They wanted Africa to remain just as a source of raw materials.
- They never wanted Africa to be their equal industrial partner.

Why colonial masters built processing industries in Africa

√ To process raw materials before export

Why a country should export processed goods than raw materials.

- Processed goods are less bulky than raw materials.
- Processed goods earn more income than raw materials.

Major sources of income for colonial governments in Africa.

- √ Exports
- ✓ Taxes.
- ✓ Donations from their home government.

Why Ugandans were forced to pay taxes by colonialists.

- ✓ It was a source of income for the colonial government in Uganda.
- ✓ To meet colonial administrative costs.
- ✓ To pay colonial workers
- ✓ To get money for providing social services.

Why colonial governments constructed roads/railways in Africa.

- To ease transportation of colonial administrators.
- ✓ To ease transportation of goods.
- ✓ To tap raw materials from productive areas of Africa.

Why Ugandans were encouraged to grow cash crops.

- It was a source of income to pay taxes.
- They wanted raw materials for their home industries
- It was a source of income for the colonial government.
- It was a source of income to Ugandans.
- To control over dependence by Africans.

Why Kenyans were not allowed to grow cash crops.

- The white settlers feared competition for market with Africans.
- > They wanted to use Africans for cheap labour.
- > To control Africans' resistance.
- They thought that if Kenyans become rich from cash crops, they would be difficult to control.

Reasons why the British never extended their rule to Karamoja region.

- They were not interested in dry Karamoja.
- Karamojong were harsh and cruel
- Karamoja was less productive.

How the Heligo land treaty affected Uganda.

The Heligo land treaty gave Uganda to Britain in exchange for Heligo land.

How the Anglo- German treaty affected Uganda.

- Uganda became part of British protectorate
- Germany surrendered Witu to Britain

Zanzibar became a British protectorate.

Why Tanzanians were forced to grow cash crops.

- The German colonialists wanted raw materials for their home industries.
- It was a source of income for the German colonialists.

Activity.

- 1. Name any two foreign languages introduced by colonialists in Africa.
- 2. Mention two economic results for the coming of colonialists to Africa.
- 3. Write two ways colonial rule affected Africans negatively.
- 4. In which one way did colonialists use money collected from Africans?