o o w S fri file C L A s ra	SECTION B (50 MARKS) Read the story below and answer the questions that follow in full sentences. Askari forgive Tendo. One Saturday afternoon, Tendo and his friend, Timothy were playing football in the church compound. The two friends were very excited when they saw other children from nearby villages coming to join them. Askari told them to be very careful as they played. The children said they would be so careful. Shortly after the Askari's warning, one of the boys missed the ball and kicked his friend's ankle. The riend fell down in great pain. Buyinza who was somehow older than them all carried the boy off the eld and asked Otto to say sorry to his friend Ali who was in great pain. Ditto said sorry and Ali forgave him. Later the children started playing again after helping Ali. Infortunately, as the play went on, Tendo kicked the ball and broke the church window. When skari heard the noise of the glasses falling down, he picked a big stick and went for the boys, on eeing the Askari, the boys took off, but the dog that stays around the church started barking as it an after them. When they saw the dog, they climbed the tree and Askari went and told them to come down. Askari warned them and asked them never to play from the church compound. Duestions What is the story about?
